

Friends of Sound Horses (FOSH) Expo Agreement

In order to promote the exhibition of sound, gaited horses, and to assist local and regional clubs in their efforts to promote sound, gaited horses, FOSH agrees to provide a stipend of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) to club(s) or group(s) that promote the sound, gaited horse in equine expositions (expos) during 2006. FOSH will subsidize the efforts of only one club/group at each expo, and such expo must be approved in advance by FOSH in order to qualify for the stipend. Approval is evidenced by the signature of a FOSH Director on this agreement.

For the sum of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), the signed party below agrees to promote sound gaited horses and Friends of Sound Horses (FOSH) at the equine exposition named below. Said party further agrees to display the FOSH banner (if available) and display and distribute FOSH literature at the exposition site and promote the sound gaited horse to the best of its ability.

FOSH shall distribute the agreed upon sum of Two Hundred Dollars after the undersigned has submitted a written summary (the "Summary") of the equine event with such Summary no less than 250 words and including volunteer names; events at the expo; overall attendance; estimated number of people visiting booth; and if a breed or stallion demonstration is made, names of horses, owners and riders and type of demo; i.e., drill, music or narrative. The undersigned agrees that FOSH shall have full rights to publish such Summary, without compensation, in the Sound Advocate or other equine publications.
